

Greetings
and Salutations!

This edition covers the month of January. If you know of a Kingdom member who isn't getting the Umbrian Mug, please let the Royal Chronicler know so that the problem can be rectified.

A MESSAGE FROM THE THRONES OF UMBRIA!

The following is a reprint of the article in the Adiran Herald.

Greetings!

The new millennium has been full of excitement here in Umbria. We would like to thank all of you who have added to the fun through your hard work and dedication to the dream. Our Estates, Ministers and Chivalry have pulled together to create fun and well run events for Our people. To the tallest man in Umbria, thank you for your understanding with the Thunar Event. It seems communication is still medieval at times!

We thank all of Our people for their support of the Fools War and the Millennium War last month. So many battles, so little time! Warriors keep your skills honed. Remember April is the County War and May is Banner War! Defend the Banner!

We have great news in Umbria! Sir Michael Sinestro received his third belt and is now a Knight Minister. Sir Roland of the Icelands spoke the oath in German, receiving his second belt to become a Knight Minister. Sir Keegan recited the oath and received the collee' to be welcomed as a Knight Bachelor. Dame Julie Anne McBride was dubbed by the king's hand and raised up as a Knight Minister. Sir Ievan has accepted the position as the new Viceroy of Westraheim. Sire Athena represents House Twin Dragon, Our newest estate. The King's Musketeers have been selected: D'artangen as himself, Sir Duncan is Porthos, Richard as Artemis, and Konor as Athos.

1999 and is on his way.

Minister of Roles

Sir James the Red

Any member who would like to have a review of their roles should please submit a request to me in writing. This can be done via e-mail at:

JamestheRed@yahoo.com

Not Getting Your Mug?

If you are not receiving your Mug, please see the Royal Steward and fill out a change of address form. Please help us to get you the Mug. Postage is a large expense to the Kingdom of Umbria on a monthly basis and we wish to get you your Mug on time, the first time.

If you do not wish to receive any future editions by mail, please contact the Steward or the Chronicler to have your name removed from the mailing list.

The Kingdom's Archery Tourney Report!

January winners were Bowmans list, Philip of Kent and the Huntsmans list, Baron Black Arrow.

February's tourney will be at El Oso Park on Saturday, February 26, 1999. The time for the event will be 10 p.m.

I wish to follow on with HRM Dame Delia with her praise of Baron Black Arrow and Lady Margarita. They both have been a major asset to the pursuit of archery in Umbria. Baron Black Arrow's scenarios at the Millennium War

Meeting of the Estates General
Of the Kingdom of Umbria

The Estates of Umbria met on 4 March 2000. The meeting time has been set for 10:00 AM with the location to be announced soon. The minutes of the 12/15/99 and 01/15/00 estates meetings are in the works and will hopefully published here, for all to read.

A Triple Knight in Umbria

Lord Sir Michael Sinestro is the first Knight in Umbria to receive all his points in here in our desert lands. Three cheers for his hard work and determination. This impressive accomplishment took him 2 years and 2 weeks to accomplish. He became a triple Knight on October 16, 1999. Sir Michael is hard on the heels in the chase for the elusive quadruple Knighthood. He hopes to achieve this with a fourth knighthood in Archery. He received his win on the bowmans list in December were truly enjoyable and challenging.

Combat Archers!! Keep up the good work and continue to get your arrows ready for the upcoming Banner War. To paraphrase the King, we need many archers. It would be nice to shower the opposition with gifts from the Umbrian combatants.

Look soon for the archery guild. Yours truly has been working on the charter for the guild. I hope to have it done soon and get the guild on the way.

Sir Waylon of Winchester, Royal Minister of Archery

100 Years of War or 100 Year War?

No matter how you say it or choose to look at it (some days it feels like a hundred years), the years 1999 and 2000 have been and will continue to be busy. We have had the Holy War, March War, Fools war, Millennium War, Crown War, Imperial War, and by May, two banner wars. Throw in kingdom tournaments, canton tournaments, and demonstrations and you find that you spend many hours in pursuit of our hobby. Is this a bad thing? I think not. For the most part we have all left the field tired and sore, but with a feeling of camaraderie.

As a kingdom, it is essential for all of us to strive towards making things better than we found them when you first joined. Our wars are just one example of this. For Umbria to continue to grow, each of us must be tolerant of opinions, which differ from ours and seek to understand the ideas of others. We as a kingdom have come together and grown. To continue this positive trend, work hard, contribute, attend events, and open your mind to new ideas. Meanwhile, get your armor cleaned up and keep your gear bag packed. The year is early yet.

This poem is an original work and I am pleased to present it to the populace of Umbria. I encourage any poets and writers who would like to share their work with the readers of this newsletter to send me your submissions. Works by other poets are welcome as well.

“Ode to Thee Irish Queen”

By: Lady Marquessa Esq. Sebile

This night, the clock tower rang gently
The reign of a Crown ended quietly
Bidding death unto a brilliant song.
The masses gathered at the hall
Bejeweled in all the colors of fall
And yet no one really spoke a word.
Ladies and Courtiers in laces and bows
Feasts and goblets upon tables in rows
A moment stirred like an echo of reverie.
Held captive the eve by a woman fair
Dancing in green with long red hair
Behold is that...my Irish Queen?
Come out to make the stars burn
Mocked by bitter envy and spurn
Or is that simply and old friend of mine?
I could have mistaken the identity
Through misty-eyes I can not see

And glittering candlelight plays
wicked games.
Sparkling dream so close to end
A friendship just begun to mend
A sword's blade catches my sight...
A verse on Love comes to mind
And I think of the lady in kind
“When love beckons, go unto him,
Though the Sword within his
pinions might wound you”.
Each friendship has its ups and downs
Forsaken they are not to simple
crowns
Rather they hold more substance
than this.
And though they hurt oft many
times
It is the way of such gloried rhymes
That the Page would not be so sweet without the Ink.
I looked upon the nobles and
knights
Heart surely weakened by the sights
How fickle these political minds at play.
Were you, Gentle, not a trusted
man?
Did we not once sit to talk and
plan...
About something worthy and honest
and true?
And you Lady, with your scores
Know you my Queen is same as yours?
Must we always agree to be determined friends?
A mask is gone with movement
quick
Swift save no serious optical trick
Roawyn...dear companion, is that you?
There, in the dim, a kind face
revealed
Maybe my own mask concealed
If only they knew that we all wear
masks...
This night slowly fades away
Silent clock will summon another day.
