DIRECTIONS: From I-17: Get off on Bell Road. Head straight through the light and follow the Frontage road. Make the 1st right onto Village. Dalcross Manor is at 2328 W. Village Drive.

Adrian Herald

The June edition of the Adrian Herald is posted at:

<http://home.att.net/~adrianherald>

If you are an e-subscriber, you should have received an email from the Imperial Chronicler, Jakob. If you are interested in an e-subscription (which gives you a discount when you renew your membership), please send that request to adrianherald@yahoo.com.

From Jakob, the Imperial Chronicler:

The July edition of the Adrian Herald will be in the mail on or about July 15 in order to be able to incorporate the Crown War Candidates letters (which are not due until July 1). We will be accepting submissions for the July issue of the AH up until July 1 then. Please put them in MSWord if possible, or in rich text format word processing document. Articles submitted as text within an email require us to cut & paste and then reformat.

The July issue is also the Arts issue, should you or your populace like to make a special submission for us to consider let us know.

A bit more about Banner War...

Huzzah to Sir Waylan of Winchester who took the Archery Champion's point for the Umbrian/Aragon Alliance!

Gossip from the Tavern BBS: Apparently the Autocrats of the Far West and North Realm Wars have not yet turned in the official points to the Imperium, so the official winners have not yet been declared!

HRM of Terre Neuve, Dame Marcella, has indicated on the Tavern BBS that we might need to question the Gypsy King about the actual current and future whereabouts of the Banner. She thinks we may have been misled! Sir Pavo?!?

Holy Moly!

His Royal Majesty has declared himself Archbishop of the Church of Adria in Umbria, and Sir Michael Sinestro the Bishop of Inverness.

HRM (and holiness!) was then overheard to have WORDS with the Dame Roawyn, Archbishop of the OTHER Church. Last I heard, there may be a Holy War coming... EEK!

Imperial Ministry Update

Dame Serene has been appointed by Julianna Hirsch, the Imperial Arts and Science Minister to the position as Deputy, West. Approved by Her Imperial Highness and Sir Karl.

-----One of my duties is to help the Imperial A & S Min. collect information on the difficulty and complexity that artisans have with doing their arts. A compilation of this information will be included as a matrix in the new 'judging guidelines' being worked on as an appendix to the new manual. I will be coming to individual artisans for their help. ☺

Thanks,
Dame Serene, Deputy, Imp.A&S Min.

Editorials

The editorials that follow express the personal opinions of the authors. They are not necessarily the feelings of the Crowns, Chronicler, nor Kingdom of Umbria.

Good populace of Umbria,

I, Dame Roawyn, would like to run for the Imperial Thrones of Adria and would ask at this time for your help in obtaining this.

I have heard rumors that I am ineligible to run due to the fact that my membership has not been current for the required year. If you will note the attached receipt and the date of the check written in the year 2000. I paid on the 21st of April of 2001. With the 30-day grace period, my membership has not lapsed. I do look forward to the upcoming Imperial war and the support of this truly great Kingdom. I will be setting forward a platform of the things I would like to accomplish as the Impress of this Empire. If anyone has any issues to bring to my attention please feel free to do so at any time.

In love with the Dream,
Dame Roawyn O'Riley

**Editor's note: Copies of the Receipts are on the last page. Due to scanning difficulties, the receipts are not available as an attachment to the eMug. Please see the Deputy Chronicler, Lady Celeste, if you would like a paper copy of them. -A*

Musings on the Dream
By Sir Michael Sinestro

The Dream? THE Dream???

Nay, let us cease speaking of 'the' Dream, as if there were some solitary, all-encompassing, one-size-fits-all 'Dream' to which we all aspire. There are myriad dreams, as numerous as the sands of the seashore or the stars of heaven, as many dreams as there are dreamers.

Nor do we who are involved in medieval recreation have a monopoly on Dreams.

We may think that if people knew how much fun we were having, they would be flocking to join us, but the simple fact is that most people would rather be doing something else, and that's fine. To me, one of the most satisfying things about medieval reenactment is that it is NOT something that a lot of people do. Whenever I mention it (which I do every chance I get), it is sure to get people's attention. Have any of them showed up at one of our events? Not yet, but that is not going to stop me. I first learned about what was going on Wednesday nights at Encanto Park when I saw a temporary employee I was working with making chain mail during his lunch hour. Do YOUR co-workers and customers know what you do in your spare time? Most of them won't be interested enough to show up, but think of the satisfaction of finding ONE who shares your Dream. Think of how much poorer the game would be if someone hadn't turned YOU on to it.

And while I'm on that subject, every time someone leaves the game, a Dream is lost. Regardless of your personal feelings about individuals who have been driven from the game (or who you would LIKE to see driven from the game), remember that the game is diminished with every person who leaves. There is more than enough room in the game for all of our Dreams. So give your adversaries some space (for that matter, give your closest friends some space). You don't need to define anyone else's Dream; you have a full time job finding your own.

Who is the Loyal Order of the Sword?

The guys in black wearing skull cod pieces. We performed well at the Crown War by leading the Rapier, and Shinai battles as well as winning the King's Champion battle for Rapier.

Our members have also won the past two Rapier tourney's: That being Chris er.Phillipe the Meek in January and Richard in June.

-Richard Mardsen

Royal Minister Reports

Minister of Arts and Sciences

We had one arts entry at the kingdom Tourney. Dame Serene entered a charcoal drawing of a nude!! Huzzah to Dame Serene and the Judges. Hopefully there will be more participation in the arts next month....

-Dame Kate, A/S Minister

Royal Physiker

Anyone who wishes to be a Deputy Physiker, please get to me proof of first aid training and a current CPR card.

Thanks –
Malaika, Royal Physiker

Minister of Joust Announcements:

July: Canton of Thunar battle will be an Every Man for Himself last man standing battle of 6 fighters at a time... Canton of Westraheim battles will be a bar room brawl battle. Kingdom Tourney is a True Highlander battle: in Renn it will be neck shots only no other blows count, and for steel head shots only.

Also the third Wednesday of July there will be a marshaling collegium for all those who missed it in June. If you are unable to attend please see Sir Puck about arrangements for qualification.

Thanks.
Sir Puck, Minister of Joust

Royal Hospitler

To build the Kingdom coffers we will be holding several fundraising events in the future. I will be accepting donations of items for raffles. Also would like input from all of the Kingdom on ideas to raise money as well. If any would like to serve on the committee please contact myself or The Queen.

-Lady Knight Keara Craig, Hospitler
Addition from HRM Dame Justina:
Please donate patterns and fabric to the Hospitler's Box to assist our new members in making their garb.

It would also be nice if we could get a list of people to call for advice on sewing and what garb to make to fit their persona.

The Chronicler's Corner...

I am pleased to announce that Lady Celeste the Nightengale has offered, been gratefully accepted and Royally approved as Deputy Chronicler. Please see her to make submissions, suggestions, etc for the August (and any future!) Mugs & Adrian Heralds. I can still be reached by email if necessary, and will attempt to check it in between trips to the beach while I am away...☺

Their Majesties have indicated to me that the Kingdom policy of Free Press/Free

Speech in the Mug will remain in effect. However, all submissions must be signed, and must be fit for publication in this family newsletter. ☺

I am so grateful for the timely submissions this month. Thank you all!

The Tourney Winners listed on the next page are not official unless submitted in writing to and verified by the Rolls Minister. If corrections need to be made, they will be printed in the next Mug. Ministers and Viceroy, please remember to get Dame Roawyn an official, written copy of any Rolls information you email to me. If you email tourney results, please cc it to both Dame Roawyn and me, as that makes both of our jobs easier. Thanks so much!

Have a great July...
Dame Aislynne

Canton Information

His Royal Majesty Sir Philippe has announced the following regarding the Local Cantons and their tourneys:

Westraheim...remains the same
Thunar...remains the same
Valle de Luna...charter not renewed
Inverness...Now a Game Preserve (Game Warden, Squire Arimis de la Rouge. Events every 3-4 months as announced).

Please see the last page of the Mug for contact information.

Colony of Trinacria

May Report – (my apologies for my oversight in neglecting to print this in the June Mug – Dm Aislynne).

Sunday was a great day in Trinacria. We grew by five or six new members on that very day. The newspaper reporter came out and did a story on us and it turned out pretty well although not always 100% accurate. We also had present a TV cameraman/reporter who did interviews with a few of our citizens. He even wired my son, Gus, up to a cordless mike while he fought with me for a demo. It was a great day.

Hucheon Blackheart has commissioned and is Captain of Trinacria's first ship, The Seawolf.

We welcome the following new members: Richard De Blank, Grimslayer, Cyote Ravenfyre, The Owl, Keoui (a visitor from the SCA Shire of Hornwood), Corvus Moreau, Jack Wolf, Hucheon Blackheart, Friar Les Umptikoffer, and Shadow Storm.

Here is our web page with the May update on it:

http://www.geocities.com/tyturner\_2000/Trinacria/trinacria\_1.html

In service,
Sir Ivan the Forsaken, Viceroy

June:

Hucheon Blackheart, Captain of the Seawolf took his 2nd Knights tourney win (Knights' Renn), while Lady Polgara, Vicerine of Trinacria, Sire of House Dragons Loft (Sargent's Renn) and Jack Wolf, Crewmember of the Seawolf (Shinai) each took their 1st tourney win.

Arts:

There were 3 entries. 2 on the masters and 1 on Knights list. There were no tourney winners however. Though all the arts were well done. Special note to Captain Hucheon's fine Mead!

Other Events of note:

Captain Hucheon Blackheart has taken the position as Colony Chancellor.

Gus, son of Sir Ivan has taken on the duties as Squire to Sir Ivan.

In service,
Sir Ivan the Forsaken
Viceroy of Trinacria

If anyone knows how to get rid of this line, please tell me! They are everywhere and they won't go away! AAAAHHHHHH
