In future issues of the Umbrian Mug we would like to publish newly approved arms. So submit them to His Royal Grace, Lord Sir Cedrik.
The Ducal Arms

Welcome to the first issue of The Umbrian Mug. We hope that this month brings you all much happiness and cheer. We would like to apologize for the delay in getting this out to our populace. We do hope that you, our populace, will be understanding and helpful as we work together to build Umbria into a thriving kingdom.

Some announcements... There will be a closed agenda Imperial Estates Meeting the weekend of November 2 & 3. For further information you should contact the Imperial Chancellor, Sir Jehen, or HIM, Sir Nikolai.

Also, There has been a terrible tragedy in the lands of a nearby kingdom. The home of Sq. Catline MacEwin and Sq. Trumack, Heather and Joe Marsh and children, was destroyed in a fire. The family is unharmed, but all that they own is gone. If you can donate dishes, pots, pans, bedding, furniture, non-perishable food, clothes, any other household items, or cash, please contact Dame Dorothea (Nadeane) at 5187650712 or by e-mail. All donations are greatly appreciated. Please look into your hearts to help this family.

Finally... The Imperium is seeking everyone's help in gathering all the rolls information and data. As most of you may know, a lot of paperwork was lost in the recent split. We need all of our populace to assist us in recreating the rolls of the duchy. Please contact Her Royal Grace Lady Dame Francesca if you have any information which may be of assistance.

Alpha Book Center-Far West ◆

Roland of Thule and his lady, Argentina MacGown, (a.k.a. Gary and Polly Pace) are pleased to announce the opening on July 4th of their new bookstore, Alpha Book Center-Far West. The store is located at 1660 N. Dysart Rd. in Goodyear, just south of the I-10 freeway. They wish to thank all of the Adrians who came out during the grand opening and helped to make it a success. All recreationists are invited to stop in to browse and say hello.

Beginning in August the store will carry handmade period garb, banners, and accessories for medieval recreation. In addition, the store carries a selection of New Age and metaphysical book titles as well as incense, candles, herbs, oils and jewelry. They are also looking for artisans with period items to be displayed and sold on a consignment basis. For further information, use the magick communication machine and the number 925-0575.

There will be a demo at Alpha Book Centers-Far West on Saturday, Sept. 21, 1996, beginning at 11:00 a.m. and commencing approximately 3:00 p.m.

All artisans are invited, nay needed, to display their wares, skills, talents, etc. Especially wanted are dancers, Tarot card readers, and bards of all kinds. Everyone is encouraged to come out and have a great time.

Contact Sire Squire Angus McAllistor for more information at  or by magick buzzing/beeping box (pager) at .
